

I am an amateur radio operator and have $8,000 invested in equipment. I use my HF and VHF radio equipment free of charge when needed in emergencies, community service and civil defence. I am not against PLC or the advancement of technology, but I want the assurance that my privileges and the ability to help my fellow man are not taken away by harmful interference on the amateur bands.